The Sundukovy Sisters will be bringing their particular brand of bold and idiosyncratic design to London this year by way of the pop-up bar at the Sleep event in November.

The Sundukovy Sisters will design the pop-up bar at the Sleep event

This year's Sleep theme, Loyalty: Lessons in Love, was embraced by the Sundukovy Sisters, Olga and Irina, saying, "Our design for the Sleeper Bar will emphasise the importance of human interaction in eliciting loyalty: not only loyalty between people but loyalty between the brand and individuals. It's a great opportunity for us to show that young designers can harmoniously integrate into the sophisticated market of hotel design, that we can both inspire and feel inspired, creating an experience that underlines the theme of the event – Loyalty: Lessons in Love.”
